SHIPYARD TRUST FOR THE ARTS

WHO WE ARE

- We advocate for the Shipyard Artists
- We create activities that support the Shipyard Artists
- We provide opportunities for the community to engage with the artists and the shipyard
- We connect the public to the Shipyard

SHIPYARD STORIES

CONNECTING ART AND COMMUNITY

- We published a coloring book on African American Shipyard Workers
- This book is the result of our artists' work with local seniors, uncovering their stories
- We are now creating community coloring events, and bringing the book to local community groups

APRIL 26/27, 2025

OPEN STUDIOS

- Over 100 artists open their studios to the public. People can meet the artists, see the Shipyard, and purchase art directly from the makers.
- Community musicians and chefs provide entertainment and food
- Silent ART Auction, opening April 10, 6-8 PM, free event
- We have at least 3,000 visitors come over the weekend

MEET the ARTISTS.
SEE the SHIPYARD.

OPENING RECEPTION APRIL 10, 6 PM

SILENT ART AUCTION

- Participating Open Studios artists donate art to underwrite event promotion
- Artists receive up to 40% of sales proceeds of their art
- RECEPTION April 10, 6-8 PM, free event, live music

UNDERSTANDING THE ISSUES

CONTAMINATION + REMEDiation

- STAR has engaged experts on chemical and radiological remediation.
- These scientists will help the artists and the public understand what the hazards are and what's being done.
- Artists will design educational programs that engage.
- Programs and events will help people make sense of it all and build trust in the process.
